Tone and Inflection

Claim- explanatory tone

Warrant- same

Data- start like you're telling a secret and slowly make it interesting. Change your face with this

Impact- HUGE tonal shift --Happier, hopeful, dismal, angry

Face should go with your tone

Introduction

Less than 30 seconds

Types:
1) Anecdotal
2) Role Play
3) Emotional Appeal
4) Comical Appeal
5) Symbolism
6) Statistics/Quotes

Conclusion

30 seconds
Last thing the judge ever hears

Conclusions should always be longer than intros

Types:

1) Call to action
2) Ethical argument – incorporate personal
3) Idealism
4) Return to original theme
5) Summation of ideas/refutation

Talk about a larger issue than the bill itself

Racism

Sexism

Classism